

REPORT

In the Mission Statement of PEF-Women it says:

Leaders of existing national women's ministries and delegates from nations who are interested in establishing a women's ministry in their nation meet during PEF Committee Conferences for the purpose of establishing their own network. The goal being that one woman from each national Pentecostal movement is represented in the European network. Until this is established, they have a guest status in the annual PEF Committee Conferences.

■ MARCH 6-8: Network Meeting in Switzerland

During the PEF Committee Conference in Emmetten / Switzerland six leaders were sitting together sharing needs, receiving input and discussing helpful topics:

Hannelore, Germany, leader of the natl. Women's Ministry »Frauen mit Vision« (www.FrauenmitVision.de) – Svetlana, Lithuania, leader of the natl. Women's Ministry »PAKILK« (www.pakilk.webs.com) – Antonietta, Italy, leader of a prayer-group of women in her husband's church in Milano – Eszter, Hungary, leader of the natl. Women's Ministry »MPE Női Misszio«, (mpenoimisszio.blogspot.hu) – Ksenija, Serbia, coord. natl. Pastor's Wives Conferences, speaker, also among Roma-Women, involved in the women's branch of the natl. Evangelical Alliance – Emma, Italy, leader of the local Ministry »Women of Honor« in the Church »The Latter Glory«

Six leaders in Emmetten

■ APRIL 1: Women's Get-Together during IMPACT Palermo

Hannelore Illgen and Ingeborg Barker (»Frauen mit Vision« Germany) spoke about the blessing of women's ministry and the role of women in the gospel and in society. A worship-team with Antonella Costanza served the sisters. Only a few sisters appeared – due to the special date (Easter Sunday).

■ APRIL 3 TO 6: »Hope for Europe / Women in Leadership« Conference in Strasbourg, France

Hope for Europe is an interdenominational network which started after the unification of Europe. The branch Women in Leadership (HFE-WIL) began 1992 under the leadership of Elisabeth Mittelstaedt, AoG, founder and editor of 14 magazines for women in Europe, the German Lydia was the first one.

The conference in April 2013 was the 10th of its kind under the leadership of a committee of women from 6 nations, among them PEF-Women Hannelore and Ksenija.

220 sisters from 27 nations followed the invitation with the topic May your Kingdom come to Strasbourg. Hannelore and Ksenija had invited leaders of ministries from national Pentecostal Movements to widen their horizon. There were Bible-studies, practical examples and workshops. Lilli, a Pentecostal Roma Pastor and Patricia, AoG-Pastor, who has established ministries to prostitutes in Thailand and Germany, contributed to the conference. A petition was sent to the EU authorities concerning Human Trafficking and there was prayer for the EU institutions, which are located in Strasbourg.
